International Women's Day - Report

Date: 08/03/2023

Location: Muslim Arts College, Thiruvithancode

Organized by: MAC Cultural Club

Introduction

International Women's Day (IWD) is celebrated annually on March 8th, marking a global occasion to recognize and honor the achievements of women in various fields, while also advocating for gender equality. Established in the early 20th century, IWD has grown from its socialist roots into a universal platform for highlighting the contributions of women and the ongoing struggles they face. The day serves as both a celebration of progress and a reminder of the work that remains to be done to achieve true gender parity.

Theme and Focus

Each year, International Women's Day adopts a specific theme that reflects current issues facing women worldwide. Recent themes have included "Choose to Challenge" and "Break the Bias," which encourage individuals to challenge gender inequality and actively work towards a world free of stereotypes and discrimination. These themes are not just slogans; they are calls to action for governments, organizations, and individuals to examine their roles in perpetuating gender inequalities and to take concrete steps to address them.

Achievements and Progress

Over the past century, women have made remarkable strides in many areas. Women's representation in politics, education, business, and other sectors has significantly improved. Legal frameworks protecting women's rights have been established in many countries, and there is growing awareness of issues such as gender-based violence, pay equity, and reproductive rights. Women's movements across the globe have successfully brought about policy changes and cultural shifts that have improved the lives of millions.

Conclusion

An International Women's Day was celebrated in Seminar Hall, Cultural club Muslim Arts College, Thiruvithancode at 1.30am to recognise the contribution and significance of the women. The celebration starts with Kirath followed by Tamilthaivalthu students. Dr. A. Safia, Asst Prof, Dept of Commerce welcomed the gathering. The principal address was

by our delivered by principal Dr.G.Edwin Sheela. The chief guest EV. Suja, Principal, Islamic Model Matric Higher Secondary School, Thiruvithancode given a talk on "Digit all- Innovation & Technology for gender Equality" The talk highlighted the message about competency of women, Intellectual capacity of women as capable of holding high responsibility as efficiently as men can do. She asked us to feel proud they are women- mother, daughter, officer, doctor and capable of holding every kind of executive role. Dr. S. Sowmiya, Assit Prof, Dept of Tamil highlighten the role of women in community. Finally Vote of thanks was given by Dr.TG.Seema Gopal, NSS PO Unit No 137. Around 245 students participated.
